12pm-2pm @ S.F. City Hall

Stand Up and Take Action is three-day global mobilization, October 16–18, 2009, to send a loud and clear message from citizens to leaders of rich and poor countries to take urgent action to achieve the Millennium Development Goals. The Millennium Development Goals is a global plan of 8 achievable goals to end extreme poverty across the planet. The goals, to be met by the year 2015, are endorsed by the United Nations, 189 governments, leading scientists, development experts and millions of people.

Last year on October 17-19, 2008 people in San Francisco Bay Area joined 116 million people from around the world to Stand Up against poverty - documented as a new Guinness World's Record! That's almost 2% of the world's population, all taking action to support an end to extreme poverty. You are invited to join this gathering of citizens, students, interfaith and civic leaders in a worldwide action to make poverty history.
